

Training Opportunities:

ICPC /APFCM ANNUAL CHAPLAIN TRAINING

APFCM Provides Police and Fire Chaplains Training annually to equip the Professional P/F chaplain's for service.

MAY 4-6, 2011:

Mark your calendar. The annual APFCM / ICPC training is scheduled and will be held at the APFCM headquarters office in Anchorage, 8-5 each day. Friday will be spent attending class in the morning, followed by the Annual Lunch at APD, followed by the Annual Police Memorial Service at the State Crime Lab.

Topics covered will include:

Cumulative stress, burn out, compassion fatigue and the chaplain

Managing a major event:

The CISM and Chaplains Support Service; desktop exercise –

- Target, Type, Timing, Theme, Team ;
- A close look at what makes up a CISM team and
- the role of a CISM Team and
 - the team members and
 - the Chaplain.

Open forum:

A round table discussion of:

- current events,
- difficult calls,
- public and private prayers,
- training needs

Public ceremonies:

- public / private prayers;
- flag or prayer, what goes first?
- looking at several option for public services, e.g.,
 - weddings,
 - funerals and
 - memorials and
 - military services / LODD services
 - order of service

Police and Fire Memorial:

Attending and organizing an official memorial (bring your uniform for the Annual Police Memorial)

ALASKA TRAINING REGISTRATION

NAME: _____

Address: _____

TITLE: _____ Chaplain _____ Fire _____ Police _____ Both F/P
_____ Hospital _____ Other _____
_____ Officer _____ other affiliation _____

Member of: _____ APFCM _____ ICPC _____ FFC _____ ICISF

Others; _____, _____

Email: _____

Phone contact #'s _____, _____, _____

Agency/Department(s) served:

1 _____ 2 _____ 3 _____

Email or Fax registration to: staff@apcm.org or Fax; 907-346-4727